

IC 3-7-27

Chapter 27. County Voter Registration; Offices and Records Generally

IC 3-7-27-1

Registration record; affidavits and forms

Sec. 1. The registration affidavits or forms of each precinct are the registration record of all voters residing in and entitled to vote in the precinct. The registration record shall be compiled, amended, supplemented, and preserved as prescribed by this article.

As added by P.L.12-1995, SEC.37.

IC 3-7-27-2

Custody of property

Sec. 2. Each board of registration has custody of all registration facilities, equipment, supplies, forms, records (including the records of registered voters of the county), registration affidavits, and other property used in connection with the registration of voters of the county.

As added by P.L.12-1995, SEC.37.

IC 3-7-27-3

Offices

Sec. 3. The county executive shall provide each board of registration with suitable offices. The offices must be:

- (1) located in the county courthouse or in a building easily accessible to the courthouse;
- (2) easily accessible to the public; and
- (3) adequate to meet the needs of the board.

As added by P.L.12-1995, SEC.37.

IC 3-7-27-4

Record keeping; methods

Sec. 4. A circuit court clerk or board of registration may:

- (1) keep records by using electronic data processing equipment; and
- (2) enter into contracts for this purpose.

As added by P.L.12-1995, SEC.37.

IC 3-7-27-5

Records unfit to be used

Sec. 5. If the registration records of a precinct are destroyed, mutilated, inaccessible, or for any other reasonable cause, unfit to be used, as determined by the county election board of the county in which the precinct is located, the circuit court clerk or board of registration shall conduct a registration of all voters residing in the precinct. Each voter who is a resident of the precinct must register as provided in this article.

As added by P.L.12-1995, SEC.37.

IC 3-7-27-6

Ensuring accuracy; implementation of programs; records; computerized registration information; fees; use of information

Sec. 6. (a) As required under 42 U.S.C. 1973gg-6(i), a county voter registration office shall retain records concerning the implementation of programs and activities conducted for the purpose of ensuring the accuracy and currency of the voter registration list. These records include the following:

(1) Lists of names and addresses of voters who were sent notices under the voter list maintenance program.

(2) Information concerning whether a voter has responded to a notice described by subdivision (1) as of the date the inspection of the record is made.

(b) The county voter registration office shall retain the records described by this section for at least two (2) years. Except for records concerning declinations to register to vote or that indicate the identity of a voter registration agency where a person registered, the county voter registration office shall make the records available for public inspection and photocopying at a reasonable cost as provided in IC 5-14-3.

(c) In accordance with IC 5-14-3-3(h) and notwithstanding any other statute, a county voter registration office shall, with regard to voter registration information concerning voters of the county on a computerized system, act in accordance with a nondiscriminatory uniform policy adopted by the county election board. The policy must either permit a person to duplicate or obtain a duplicate copy of a computer disc or other similar record system that contains this voter registration information or not permit the person to duplicate or obtain a duplicate copy of the information. Notwithstanding IC 5-14-3-8, the county election board may adopt a nondiscriminatory uniform fee for the production of this electronic record.

(d) A person who requests computerized voter registration information under subsection (c) must provide a written statement that the person will not:

(1) use the information to solicit merchandise, goods, services, or subscriptions; or

(2) sell, loan, give away, or otherwise deliver the information obtained by the request to any other person; for a purpose other than political activities or political fundraising activities.

(e) Publication of information obtained under subsection (d) in a news broadcast or newspaper is not prohibited.

IC 3-7-27-7

Active voter; determination

Sec. 7. The voter registration records must indicate whether a person is an active voter. The circuit court clerk or board of registration is not required to compile separate lists of active and inactive voters.

As added by P.L.12-1995, SEC.37.

(Repealed by P.L.164-2006, SEC.143.)

IC 3-7-27-20.1

Computerized systems; entry of information

Sec. 20.1. (a) The county voter registration office shall prepare an entry in the computerized system that accurately reflects the information set forth in the original affidavit of registration. However, the county voter registration office is required to enter a voter's voting history for the previous ten (10) years only if that history is available.

(b) The county voter registration office is not required to prepare a duplicate paper copy of a registration properly entered into the computerized system.

As added by P.L.209-2003, SEC.38. Amended by P.L.164-2006, SEC.17.

IC 3-7-27-20.2

Computerized system identifying documentation for voter submitting registration application by mail

Sec. 20.2. (a) The county voter registration office shall prepare an entry in the computerized system indicating:

(1) whether the applicant was required to provide documentation under IC 3-7-33-4.5; and

(2) if so, whether the required documentation has been provided.

(b) If the documentation required under IC 3-7-33-4.5 has been provided, the entry must include the following:

(1) The date the documentation was filed with the county voter registration office.

(2) Whether the documentation was filed with the county voter registration office by:

(A) a precinct election board after the person voted in person at the polling place;

(B) the county election board after the person applied to cast an absentee ballot; or

(C) the applicant as part of the original filing of the application to register to vote, or in a subsequent filing received by the county voter registration office.

(3) A brief description of the type of documentation provided.

The election division shall provide each county voter registration office with a suggested coding system for identifying the types of documentation.
